

SAVE THE DATE!

2011 K-20 Service-Learning Symposium

University of Louisiana at Monroe
Student Union Ballroom

Thursday, November 10, 2011

8:30 AM—3:00 PM

Co-hosts:

Funding for this workshop has been provided by

State Farm

For more information, contact:

Dr. Stuart Stewart
Louisiana Campus Compact
SLU 10550
130A Financial Aid Bldg.
Hammond, LA 70402
Phone: (985) 549-2496
Fax: (985) 549-2497
Email: lacampuscompact@selu.edu

Free for Louisiana Campus Compact members and current K-12 classroom teachers
$100 for Non-Louisiana Campus Compact members

Continental breakfast, lunch, and workshop materials will be provided.

Presenter:

Dr. Christine Cress
Portland State University

Co-author, Learning Through Serving
Co-editor, Democratic Dilemmas of Teaching Service-Learning: Curricular Strategies for Success

Dr. Cress is department chair in the Graduate School of Education and professor in the Postsecondary, Adult, and Continuing Education (PACE) at Portland State University where she teaches courses in adult learning and professional development, and leadership and ethics in higher education. She is an accomplished scholar with over 50 publications and 100 professional presentations focused on learning environments, community-based learning experiences, and the impact of campus climate on student development outcomes and faculty productivity.

REGISTRATION DETAILS FORTHCOMING